

Department of Social Sciences

Constitutional Day Celebration 2024

The Department of Social Sciences celebrated Constitutional Day on 28th November 2024 by organizing an Awareness Programme on “Constitutional Day & Constitution of India” in association with Amigos IAS Academy. The programme aimed to create awareness among the student community about the values and significance of the Indian Constitution.

Every year, 26th November is observed as Constitutional Day, also known as “Samvidhan Diwas”, to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India.

The resource person, Mr. A. Nikhil, a University Gold Medallist and UPSC Faculty, addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of the Constitution. He explained key concepts such as Socialist, Secular, and Republic, helping students understand the foundational principles of the nation.

Faculty and students from various streams including B.A., B.Com., B.Sc., and BBA actively participated in the programme, making it a successful and informative event.

