ALUMNI STORIES

It gives me immense pleasure to know that our Alma Mater, Sardar Patel College, is coming out with a newsletter. College bred & buttered us to become good citizens. The knowledge that we gained from our teachers held us in good stead in our formative years. College was a fun place; apart from education, it also gave us a platform to gain proficiency in sports. Sardar Patel's teams were champions in all the inter-collegiate tournaments. We were a force to reckon with in the state of the then AP. Many of us went on to represent our country in various sports. This was mainly due to the healthy sporting atmosphere at the college. My sincere thanks to all my teachers who have shaped me & given me the correct input. The three years spent at Sardar Patel College were the most memorable in my life. I wish the college management and the students the best of luck in all their endeavours.

Regards,

HEALTH & WELLNESS

International Yoga Day was celebrated on 21st, June, 2023 at college premises. Dr. N. Hemalatha-Principal, Dr. M. Amaranatha Sharma-Vice Principal, staff members teaching, non-teaching, and students have participated in this event.

The Yoga practice is about taking deep breathe and using your physical strength to its highest potential. As a result, it is critical that your body can focus on the practice for example, participation in intensive digestive activity. Yoga nutrition is a comprehensive philosophy that attempts to cleanse, strengthen, and develop all levels of our human existence. While most other nutrition systems concentrate on food's physical and chemical impacts, yoga nutrition considers our diet's emotional and spiritual components.

Regular yoga allows us to develop physical strength, flexibility, and balance while improving mental activity, emotional stability, and spiritual development. Yoga combined with a natural diet is helpful in many ways to create a condition of harmony and balance. Chronic illnesses can be avoided to a large extent by proper nutrition. Despite knowing the value of a balanced diet, we frequently seek junk food to control our moods or reduce stress. When we are stressed, we tend to eat uncontrollably, and before we realize a whole box of cookies or bag of chips has entered our system, increasing our stress levels further.

Warm meals are advised in Ayurveda for many reasons, such as better digestion, Agni, or digestive fire, balancing doshas, and stress relief. This is so because warm meals digest more readily than cold ones. Eating warm meals can promote nutritional absorption, stimulate the digestive system, and help prevent digestive issues, including bloating, gas, and constipation. Yoga can assist people in being more in tune with their bodies and making better decisions regarding the choice of food for lowering stress and encouraging awareness. Additionally, it helps with digestion and boosts metabolism, thus helping the body handle the nutrients more effectively and maintain a healthy weight.
